Submitting to the identity of Christ in the new creation

Healing is food for the Children. What we have in Him. Part three of a four part series

Jesus speaking to the gentile woman (a woman with no covenant) seeking healing for her daughter referred to healing as bread for the children. Bread is food and food is part of the daily necessity that the human body needs to sustain life on earth. The word explicitly states in Isaiah 53 and 2Peter that by Jesus' stripes we are healed and expresses in many passages God's will in reference to physical, mental and emotional healing. Healing is part of the new covenant and a vital aspect of our redemption.

Before any one become godlier than God in thinking that we as humans can be more graceful and feel the pain of the sick and afflicted and desire for them to get better and be healed and God doesn't, be aware that if that is your believe, any attempt to better the condition of the sick will be a violation of the will of God. Father's word tells us from Genesis to Revelation that it is his will to heal us. God wants his children to be in good health not just spiritually but physically, emotionally, mentally and in every aspect of life. Jesus came and redeemed us from the curse of the law. (Galatians 3:13 poverty, sickness and death. Deuteronomy 28). The bible explicitly states in Acts 10:38 that "God anointed Jesus Christ of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil for God was with him." Our Father is a good God and he does good things. He cannot act in an evil manner because there is no unrighteousness in him. Therefore unrighteous acts cannot proceed out from Him. In Matthew 7:11, Jesus speaking to the multitude said "if ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? Healing, health, abundant life is a good thing and it is food for the children included in the new and better covenant with better promises. (Hebrews 8:6) This is your heritage in Christ.

What does the bible (which is the expression of the will of God) really say about healing? Psalms 103 describes five benefits inclusive of healing as reasons to bless the Lord. In fact it says he heals all (not some) of my diseases. In Proverbs 4:20-22 the Father admonishes his child to give full place to his word because his word will be or produce life (full and abundant life) and health to all their flesh. God's will concerning healing has not changed. God declared to the Israelites that He is the God who heals them (Exodus 15:26) He told them that if they walk in his ways he will not permit all the calamities that befell the Egyptians to come on them, that He will take sickness away from their midst. The promise of the messiah through the seed of Abraham who is Christ is to be a blessing (not a curse) to the nations. Sickness is not a blessing. And yes God can still use the infirmed because He is God. If God can bring life out of death (as opposed to bringing life into death) He can turn any circumstance if permitted for His glory.

For the believer and those who fear his name and remember his statues, the son of righteousness has risen with healing (not sickness) in his wings (Malachi 4:2) Even to the unjust. God is still good because He is a good God and wants all to turn to Him. For the bible says that it is the goodness of God that causes people to repent (Romans 2:4) He sends his rain to the just and unjust. He healed Naaman a gentile and captain of the host of the Syria army, an enemy nation to Israel. If the covenant of healing was not limited to the nation of Israel alone under the old covenant how much more God desires to heal his children under the new covenant. Jesus did not turn away the gentile woman (Matthew 15: 21-28) who came to him but healed her daughter. In fact, He went healing all and all manner of sickness and disease of those who came to Him. If Jesus is the visible image of the invisible God expressing the will of His Father on earth through healings amongst other things, then it bears asserting that God was and still desire to heal people spirit, soul and body.

In James 5:14, the sick are admonished to call for the elders of the church to pray and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord and the prayer of faith shall save or bring about their healing. Standing on this side of the redemptive work of Christ, Peter declared in the past tense that by Jesus stripes we were healed. John in Revelation declares that in the New Jerusalem there will be no more sickness or disease. On earth as it is in heaven, God wants to unfold His will and blessings on your life. He wants you to prosper and be in health even as your soul prospers. Herein is the key-even as your soul prospers. God doesn't delight in seeing his children or the people of the world especially little children suffering under the oppression of the devil because of diseases caused from malnutrition or many other untold reasons. It is time to take charge of your heritage of abundant life and to be bold in the throne room of grace, raising his word before Him so that you can be bold before the world and the devil declaring and living in the covenant procured Jesus Christ. Healing is food for the children. Jesus said so. You are Abba's child. Do you believe Him? Then take your place in Him.

If we are to run this race and finish our course to satisfaction, then health (spirit, soul and body) is a vital necessity. The devil is stealing and many have allowed him to prematurely kill and destroy their destiny through the lie of the traditions and doctrines of men that render the word of God of none effect. Many have taken the passive and apathetic attitude of "what ever will be will be. If God wants me to be sick, poor, cursed" and the list goes on and on," then there is nothing I can do about it" No God doesn't want you living under the curse. Jesus was cursed for us so we don't have to live under it any more no matter what our visible world portrays. We are co-laborers with God and have been made more than conquerors through Christ to reign and rule over our lives in the now and not spoiled brats who have no sense of covenant

If you are sick today, I pray the Lord of amazing grace and abundant mercy and compassion will heal you as you read this mail in the powerful name of His son our Saviour Jesus Christ. I rebuke the enemy that comes to steal, kill and destroy the goodness of God in your life. I speak abundant life to you in the name of Jesus. And I encourage you to rise up in Jesus name and claim your healing and keep standing and having done all stand. No matter what happens as long as you are standing in faith you win. God has promised us abundant life. Let's lay hold on it. No parent or person with love, compassion or mercy in their heart can look into the pain-ridden eyes or face of one under the oppression of sickness and disease and say it is God's will. Yes there is a God ordained suffering but it is not sickness. And God doesn't use the curse of the law to teach his kids. He uses His word. Let's submit to His living word who is Christ in us our hope of glory. He loves you more than you will ever be able to comprehend. Come to Him today. Worship and let Him embrace you in his loving arms.

Shalom,
Kenneth Etta
